

Dr. Aisha Mwangi

General Practitioner | Primary Care & Patient Advocacy

Summary:

Compassionate physician with 12+ years of experience in family medicine and primary care. Skilled in diagnosing, treating, and managing acute and chronic conditions. Committed to patient education, preventive care, and community health initiatives.

Experience:

- General Practitioner, Nairobi Family Clinic (2016–Present)

- Provide comprehensive care to 30+ patients daily, including diagnosis, treatment, and follow-up.
- Implemented preventive health programs that increased vaccination rates by 25%.
- Supervised junior doctors and medical interns, fostering professional development.

- Resident Physician, Kenyatta National Hospital (2012–2016)

- Rotated through internal medicine, pediatrics, and emergency departments.
- Assisted in managing critical cases and coordinated multidisciplinary care teams.
- Conducted patient education workshops on nutrition and lifestyle management.

Education:

Doctor of Medicine (MD)

University of Nairobi, 2012

Skills:

Patient Care | Diagnosis & Treatment | Preventive Medicine | Electronic Health Records | Communication | Team Leadership

Certifications:

- Licensed Medical Practitioner (Kenya Medical Practitioners Board)
- Basic Life Support (BLS) & Advanced Cardiac Life Support (ACLS)

Projects:

- Community Health Outreach Program, Nairobi County (2020–2022)
- Diabetes Awareness Campaign, Kenya Medical Association (2018)